

YOUR NAME

Start the trail at the grey arrow
Follow the numbers from 1-14.

1 PORCH

Come into the Church through the iron gates.
In front of you there is a huge wooden door. You can see and feel the nails which hold it together. Look up at the wooden roof.
The door and the ancient roof beams are made of

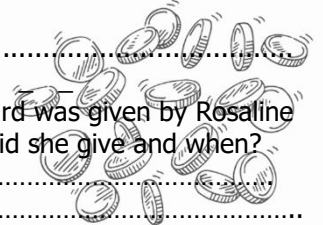

O _ _

2 CHARITY BOARD

This board shows the names of people who gave money to help others. Who was the first to give money in 1840?

Who received it? The P _ _ _
The last gift listed on the board was given by Rosaline Isabel Scorer. How much did she give and when?

3 VICARS BOARD

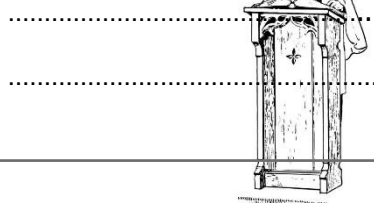

This board shows a list of priests who have served here. By the dates you can see it is an ancient Church. Who was the first Vicar?

What year did he come here?

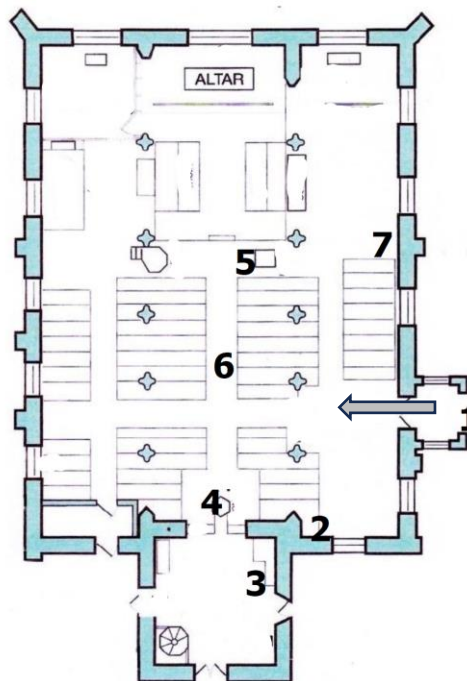

_ _ _ _

From 1792-1900 how many Vicars served here?

Who was the Vicar at the time of the Great Fire of London?

EAST

WEST

4 FONT

This is a large bowl which holds holy W _ _ _ _ and is where baptism takes place to bring people, often babies and children, into the Christian family. How many sides does it have?

E _ _ _ _
This is called an O _ _ _ _

This font is about 700 years old. Feel and see how worn it is. It is made of S _ _ _ _ with a W _ _ _ _ lid.
Find these shapes carved around the sides

5 LECTERN

A lectern is a large book rest. This lectern is made of brass and is shaped like an E _ _ _ _ At the bottom there are three small brass L _ _ _ _
What book would you often see on the lectern?

H _ _ _

B _ _ _

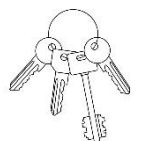

6 NAVE

This is the main part of the Church. The wooden roof looks like an upturned S _ _ _ _ There are full stone pillars in the nave. On the pillar near the lectern there is very old carving (graffiti). It is faintly coloured and is dated
Who might have made these marks?

.....
Draw some of the marks.

7 WOODEN TRUNK

High up in the wall are arches of old windows. Underneath is a large wooden trunk. It has large locks. The Churchwardens and the V _ _ _ _ have keys.
What was kept in it?.....

.....
Find the little stone arch behind it. What could it be used for?

.....

8 MEMORIAL WINDOW

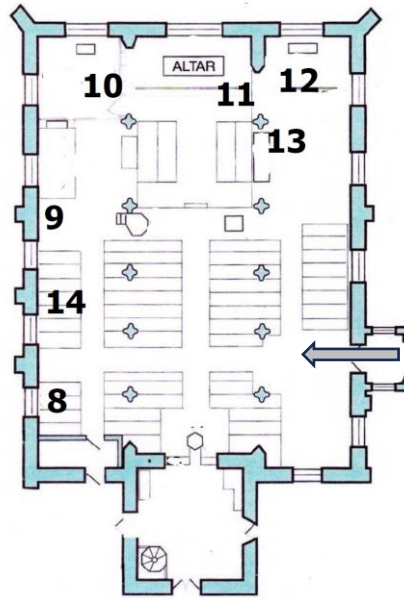

This beautiful window is by the artist Edward Burne-Jones and is dedicated to the hero General James Wolfe who lived in Westerham. He defeated the French in a famous battle in 1759. Where was it, and in what country?

Q U _ _ _

C A _ _ _ _

EAST

WEST

9 PULPIT AND MODEL

Who usually uses this pulpit?
The V _____
Why are there steps up?.....

Before the Church had electricity what did they use to see to read?

C _ _ _ _ _
The Church model shows changes over four hundred years. What changes can you see?

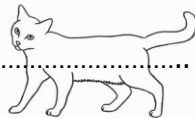

10 RESURRECTION CHAPEL AND SCREEN

The glass screen was made in 2003 to celebrate the Millennium. It shows life in Westerham through the ages. Who can you see working in the fields?

F _ _ _ _ _ and P _ _ S _ _ _ _

Look for an animal. It is a C _ _
Clue: it was the Vicar's pet.
What else can you see?

11 ALTAR AND REREDOS

Above the altar are stained glass windows. What musical instruments are the angels playing?

What colour is the altar frontal cloth today?
..... This changes at different times of the year, such as Christmas and Easter when it is white and gold. The reredos is behind the altar and shows Jesus and E _ _ _ _ _ disciples (followers) at the Last Supper. Who is missing?

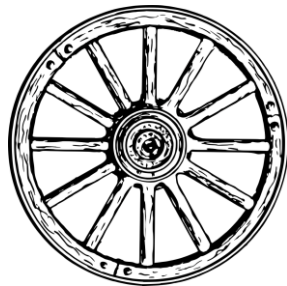

12 ST. KATHERINE'S CHAPEL

This chapel is dedicated to the martyr Saint Katherine of Alexandria (in Egypt). Look for the symbol of how she died. It is a

W _ _ _ _ of

K N _ V _ _

13 SANCTUARY LAMP

Look up and you see the hanging sanctuary lamp. This was given to the Church in 1950. Who gave it and in whose memory?

It was given by C.....

C..... in memory of W _ _ _ _ _ Why would people seek sanctuary in a Church ?

14 WINDOWS

Find the window that has Mary, mother of Jesus standing alone. Is there anything else shown in the window?
..... Find a window you really like.

What does it show (you can write about it or draw it).
.....

Sit quietly by your window and think about all those people who have come to this church in the past hundreds of years.

We hope you have enjoyed your visit and will come back again.